Nic, après vérification sur GOOGLE, 875 Heron road (OTC/CRA) est juste à côté du RA Center. J'ai avisé mon équipe, ils me reviennent avec les infos de capacités.

Merci,

I am on the road, this might be a larger thing than 1500 Br.

Can someone contact Tosha, RA and Can Tire were not raised as overflow.

Good Afternoon Jean-Francois,

I am writing to alert you to a situation that has just been brought to our attention. A couple of hours ago, we were advised through a couple of media outlets that Randy Hillier and a few other organizers were encouraging people to utilize the RA parking lots for the purposes of a staging area in support of the trucker convoy. The organizers have named both the Canadian Tire Centre and the RA to be used for this purpose. The staging areas are being used to prepare for a protest event scheduled for Sunday February 13th at 9:15am. At this time, we do not know when people / cars / trucks would be arriving on this site. Needless to say, we are out of our depth with the complexity and risk with this one and would welcome your thoughts / suggestions on how best to prepare. Given the ongoing issues in the core of the city, we have been unable to source a security firm with the staff to manage our site at this time. Our primary concern is of course people – members and our staff, but also of the capital assets, let alone the proximity to other federal buildings such as CRA. In an abundance of caution, we will be closing our operation and clearing the site at end of business on Friday night with the hope to resume operation on Monday the 14th.

We have alerted the Command Centre of the OPS and have yet to hear back. Through our corporate counsel, we have had a Cease and Desist order sent to Hillier and other organizers. In consultation with the Fire Services, we are unable to leave barriers at the entrance of the parking lots and we are not willing to place our staff in harm's way.

Do you have any resources as federal landlord that might assist us with the safety and security of the RA site? I can be reached via email or cell a[redacted]

Your timely attention to this matter would be greatly appreciated,

Tosha
